

Isolation Test Questions: Clinical

1. If you wear gloves when performing your job duties, you do not need to perform hand hygiene after removing them.
 - a. True
 - b. False
2. If you are unsure what to do before entering the room of a patient on isolation precautions, how can you find out what precautions you should use? Select all that apply.
 - a. Read the isolation precautions sign on the door
 - b. Ask the primary nurse
 - c. Put on gloves, gown, mask, and shoe covers regardless of the isolation category
 - d. Ask the CNC or charge nurse
3. Which of the following is NOT an isolation precautions category?
 - a. Contact Precautions
 - b. Airborne Precautions
 - c. Bloodborne Pathogen Precautions
 - d. Droplet Precautions
4. This sign is displayed on the door of a patient's room. What precautions should be used? Select all that apply.
 - a. Gown and gloves when entering the room regardless of the purpose of entry
 - b. Alcohol based hand hygiene only
 - c. Clean the room with a hospital approved agent containing bleach
 - d. Use dedicated or single use patient care equipment/supplies

5. You are providing care to a patient with C. difficile. After removing the appropriate personal protective equipment (PPE), you would perform hand hygiene by:
 - a. Using alcohol-based hand sanitizer
 - b. Using hospital approved soap and water
 - c. Using soap and water only if hands are soiled
 - d. Using either hand sanitizer or soap and water
6. Appropriate routine management of patients with suspected or know TB (Tuberculosis) includes:

- a. Placement in an Airborne Infection Isolation Room with the door closed
 - b. Use of a hospital supplied N-95 Respirator by all staff entering the room
 - c. The patient wears a surgical-grade mask if leaving the room is necessary
 - d. All of the above
7. What are the considerations when preparing a patient on isolation precautions for transport for a medically necessary test, such as CT, MRI or other procedure.? Select all that apply.
- a. If possible, schedule the patient as the last case of the day
 - b. Notify the receiving department about the patient's isolation precautions category
 - c. Notify Environmental Services (EVS) of the patient's movement
 - d. Ensure that the patient wears a surgical mask if on Airborne or Droplet Precautions
 - e. Transporting staff must wear a mask when transporting masked patients who are on Droplet Precautions
 - f. Varicella skin lesion or open wounds must be covered
8. It is acceptable to wear PPE (i.e. disposable gown and gloves) at the nurses' station and in the hallways? (Mask for COVID and/or Flu is allowable)
- a. True
 - b. False
9. After discharging a patient who was on Airborne Precautions for active TB, the room must remain closed and under negative pressure for a minimum of 60 minutes before EVS staff should enter the room to clean. If unable to keep the room closed for 60 minutes, a hospital approved N-95 Respirator must be worn before entering the room.
- a. True
 - b. False
10. I have reviewed the updated 2024 Transmission Based Isolation Policy and attest that I will follow the practice guidelines. I understand that failure to follow policy may result in corrective action.
- a. Yes
 - b. No